LOQ = Limit of Quantitation; The reported result is based on the sample weight and the methods range; Unless otherwise stated all quality control samples performed within specifications established by the Laboratory;

TNTC = Too Numerous to Count; The measured value is above the instruments detectable range.

Limits: There are no established residual solvent limits for the state of Arizona. There are no established limits for Diacetyl in any state. The limits for the following compounds are based on the Oregon standard except for Chloroform, 1,2-Dichloroethane, and Trichloroethene which follow the California standard.
